Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.MEDITATING INTO HAPPINESS [Happy Raj Saga Seven] 4000/2014 Meditating Into Happiness is the seventh novel in the Happy Raj Saga Series, the first of which was an award winner. The story begins with a lecture about meditation, by Professor Happiraja, to his former colleagues at the State Polytechnique. At the end of his lecture Professor Happiraja invites them to participate in a ten-day seminar on meditation at the Happy Raj Meditation Center. They plan to move in two batches. The first batch of the lady academics invades the Happy Raj and was lodged in the Paradise, the beautiful abode of the holy ladies at the Happy Raj. On their arrival every lady was given a lap top computer loaded with all the seminar materials, background reading sutras and a copy of the Happy Raj exhibitions: Corridors of Happiness which explains the concept of suffering, as enunciated by Lord Buddha, and the exhibition at the Dada Mausoleum about anitya or impermanence. Professor Happiraja invites his former colleagues to help him improve the quality of his exhibitions as a part of their training. A tsunami warning had made the batch of male academics to go to their branch, Retreat in the hill capital in Sri Lanka. Happy Raj staff flew to participate in the seminar. The lady academics who were concentrating on the five grossesses [panchaskanda] had made a positive contribution towards the success of the seminars by making very useful suggestions to improve the potency of the two exhibitions. Two of them had expressed their willingness to join the Happy Raj Meditation Center to go in search of Nirvana. The main contribution made by the...
