In only two years, the Internet sector grew over 1000 of its public equity and equalled nearly 6 of the market capitalization of the United States and over 20 of all public traded equity volume in the US. It had its peak on March 10, 2000 with a NASDAQ score of 5, 048. 62. This period was characterized by lots of establishments of companies in the Internet sector. They were called Dotcom Companies because of the . com in the end of an URL that comes from the word commercial. The bubble burst during the years 2000 until 2002 when the NASDAQ lost nearly 80 of its value, many companies like Pets. com failed completely and over 7 trillion in market value were destroyed. With this paper, the author tries to explain the rise and fall of Internet stock prices during that period. For this purpose, the general causes and characteristics of financial bubbles get described before the application to the Dotcom bubble follows. Additionally, some company examples and survivors and losers of the bubble like pets. com, Webvan or Ebay get introduced. Because the bubble mainly took place in the United States, the author will focus on American company examples and the American stock exchange. This item ships from multiple locations. Your...
