But, I think it is safe to say that this subcommittee will be able to mark up a 1997 bill that is closer to the President's request than was the case last year. What is more striking this year is the disproportionate amount of our bill that will go to a very small part of the world, the Middle East and the neighboring eastern Mediterranean region. By my staff's calculation, the President's new budget allocates $5,345 billion; for the Middle East. Depending on the outcome of the pending supplemental request for Jordan and Israel, that number could climb by another $120 million. That's close to 50 percent of this subcommittee's expected allocation. It's more than 50 percent of the total foreign aid in our bill once the appropriation for OPIC and Ex-Im Bank, which in my opinion is not foreign aid, are deducted from the allocation. The taxpayers of the United States have already provided $85.5 billion in support of the 1978 Camp David agreements. We have now complied with three successive emergency requests totalling $444 million for Jordan, in support of its involvement in the peace agreement with Israel. We've provided at least $200 million in support of the Palestinian authority in support of its peace agreement with Israel. And I know that you're negotiating with Syria,...
