Not illustrated. 1883 Excerpt: .given me the useless legacy for a small supply of rice. Here are still the old sheets on which they tried their pencils. If you like the sketches, take the package along with the books you have bought. M. Metman called the coolies, and ordered them to fill their baskets with the dishes, the packages of books and drawings; but to leave the bottles and the remainder of the dinner for the yakounins and the people of the house. Then, turning to the bookseller, ne said: Will it be necessary, do you think, to order cur mattresses and quilts, in order to pass the night here? Now is the time to send for them by the coolies. A general hilarity succeeded this question; then there were whisperings and goings to and fro, between the shop and the street, where an increasing crowd of curious spectators endeavored to find out what strange drama was being enacted. At last the owner and his employe reappeared, bearing some volumes under their arms. He bowed again, and placed in the hands cf th strangers, evidently with the consent of the yakounins, two perfectly authentic copies of the official Annual of Yedo. I passed the night in examining the precious collection. It was composed of thirty illustrated works and a quantity of sheets, loose or sewed together. Here were old encyclopaedias, enriched with plates which seemed to have issued from the German workshops of the Middle Ages; there, albums of...
