Mockingbird Lane Press. Hardcover. Condition: New. 222 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. For lovers of poetry and history, this 80th anthology will prove invaluable. The Poets Roundtable is an Arkansas treasure, an energy field. The poems--wise, humorous, playful, tinged with sorrow--echo the human condition in clear, often earthy discourse. All celebrate life at its fullest; some will break your heart. . . Joe McDougall This gathering of 80 years of poetry anthology provides a generous trove. Wander through its fertile fields and discover many satisfactions: Poems grounded in the human need to tell stories--sometimes satisfyingly tame, sometimes wildly inventive--but always they evoke emotion. . . Andrews Hollander Budy Since the Poets Roundtable of Arkansas was founded in 1931, its members have been writing, without knowing it, an essential history of Arkansas. This is not the sort of history we read in text books, or even the newspaper; its the history of the inner lives of some of our states most thoughtful and talented citizens. Im sure youll find its your history too. . . David Jauss This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Hardcover.
