Locurna: Star Traveller (Paperback)

By Ph D Wendy Pierce

Balboa Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Locurna, (pronounced low-KERR-nah), is a Star Traveller who travels to earth to help young children learn about spirituality and right-relationship with others and with the world and to love themselves just as they are, to know themselves as unlimited spiritual beings and carry these concepts into adulthood. This story is written so that it will be used as an interactive tool to open up the dialogue between children and their parents on the concept of spirituality; to give children a feeling of interconnectedness with everything around them, of being mindful of their feelings and respectful of others. Although it may appeal to a broader age range, it has been written to address the development of children between 3-6 years of age. This is a time when children are easily led, readily identify with their parents, and have an intense curiosity. For younger children who may have a shorter attention span, each page is written to introduce an idea and then initiate dialogue; therefore, the story can be told just one page at a time. A child's sense of wonder is...
