

Journey to Bamiyan: Travel Journal of a Wanderer (Paperback)

By Jpc Jean Chesnel

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is a true travel story/ memoir of adventures, friendship, youth, ambitions, romances, difficult relationships, and spiritual search for life and Art. Jean-Pierre is infatuated from the start by a woman coming by herself on an ocean liner anchored in the midst of the Indian Ocean. Streetwise world travelers they decide to travel together. Both are penniless when they arrive in Bombay, India. Jean-Pierre doesn't speak English and Jill had only picked-up few French words in the Seychelle Islands. Each day brings more difficulties in spite of their strong attraction. Jill, sophisticated, educated in an university in California and Jean-Pierre a Frenchman in his early twenties with no high school education found it difficult to overcome the age difference and diversity in their backgrounds, searches and goals. Jill, clever and shamelessly open about herself and her adventurous past wants to know all about Jean-Pierre. He has never confided, never explored his feelings and is afraid of talking about himself. But pushed by Jill he describes where he has been and why and what his dream is: becoming a true artist. He...
