When out of sight, the first thing he did was to light a cigar. Made an ass of myself, I m afraid, he muttered, as he puffed away. Thought I was better prepared, but really the way she looked at me with those confoundedly earnest eyes of hers, put everything I meant to say out of my head. No fellow could propose properly to such an unresponsive young lady. I think she read me through and through. I may mark the name off. Miss Greville comes next, I think--plague to it! this is my betting-book, but I believe the ladies names are at the end. Miss Golightly, Fleetfoot. No, that s the wrong place. Rosalie soon returned to her reading. The little scene just enacted had not been of a very exciting character. But she sighed as she took up her book, thinking how...
