The Intermediates of Grace, N. S., Pittsburgh, are to be congratulated on their paper, The Intermediate Flypaper, which tells of their activities. Once caught, you stick, is their motto. Some of their activities for January included annual election of oflicers, appointment of committees, a social held at the close of the meeting, a surprise meeting for the President, ten representatives at the Intermediate conference held at Rochester, Pa. The next Intermediate Conference of the District will be held under the direction of this League, and workers connected with the League are also members of the District Intermediate Committee. Here s hoping all stick. The Juniors of Grace, N. S., Pittsburgh, have had a paper for some time, its title being The Gleaner. Some of their activities noted are an annual business meeting, a social given by the Juniors to the instructors, and a team from this League assisting a newly organized Junior League at St. Paul s Pitcairn, by a demonstration meeting. This League, which is the oldest in the Luther League of America, has teams appointed each week for the presentation of the Junior Topics, and great rivalry exists as to which will best arrange the meetings. account of a gift of love to the dead. It is an example worthy of imitation....
