The Department of State, has received dispatches from our Consul at Tabasco, Mexico, dated January 3, 1866, in which he communicated the discovery of the ruins of two ancient cities, which have remained unknown since the days of the Conquest. The first, he says, from its topography and situation, he is led to believe is one occupied by Cortez, at the time of his invasion of Tabasco, and is situated about fifteen miles to the west of Frontera, a town at the mouth of Tabasco or Grijalva river; the other is situated in the north-eastern portion of the State, nearly opposite the present city of Laguna de los Terminos, and was known before the Conquest as Xicolanea. The traditions connected with it trace its origin to a period at least two hundred years before the Christian era. Having a desire to learn more of these interesting archaeological remains for the purpose of laying it before the Society, I addressed the Honorable Secretary of State, soliciting a copy of the original dispatch, and speedily received a very complimentary letter in reply, enclosing the desired information. I now read it from the official copy. Sir: I have to inform the Department, that in my explorations in this State, I have discovered the ruins of...
